But please ensure that you mention where the goods were originally purchased (leonpaul.com or leonpaulusa.com)

Please print and fill out the returns form on the following page and, where possible please include a copy of the invoice or the receipt.

If the reason for the return was our fault, e.g. we sent the wrong item then we are very sorry for the mistake and will refund the cost of your postage to us.

If the reason for return was an error in ordering e.g. an incorrect size then please either include payment details such as a credit card number or first class stamps to the same value as it cost you to return the item to us. In the UK the average cost of sending a jacket or breeches is about £3-4.

If you are returning anything to us then please ensure that you use a safe method of shipping such as royal mail "recorded delivery" this only costs a small amount more than standard package post and is much safer. Unfortunately Leon Paul can't be held responsible for any items lost in transit to our returns department.

If you are shipping from outside the UK please make sure that you mark the value of the package as less than £20 otherwise tax may be charged.

We will do our best to process all items as quickly as impossible but if we are out of stock of the required item it may take up to 2 weeks.
